Actor's hotrod mission comes from the heart

BY EVAN WILLIAMS

ewilliams@floridaweekly.com

Paul Le Mat is forever young in the 1973 film "American Graffiti." He played John Milner, a drag-racing greaser on his high school graduation night in 1962.

Talking on the phone from Sacramento last week, where he was attending the Autorama car show, Mr. Le Mat said he was only "almost as tough, and almost as cool" as that character.

Today, he lives in San Fernando Valley, Calif. Now in his 60s, Mr. Le Mat has furthered his association with hot rods and classic cars, traveling all over the country attending car shows. He also filmed a documentary called "Hot Rods Across America." And soon, Mr. Le Mat will be coming to a car show near you. Look for him on Feb. 20 at Supercruise USA, held on the Charlotte County Fairgrounds in Port Charlotte.

Hundreds of vehicles, including a replica of the yellow '32 Ford coupe Mr. Le Mat raced in the film, will be on display from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Mr. Le Mat will also autograph photos and posters, with all proceeds going to the Bread of Life Mission in Punta Gorda. Judy Jones operates a homeless shelter there with a Christian message.

The Charlotte County Fairgrounds is located at 2233 El Jobean Rd., a few miles west of U.S. 41 in Port Charlotte. For more information, visit www.collectorcarstv.com and click on Car Show Schedule.

prizes, dash plaques, a 50/50 jackpot and food. Admission is $5; free for children under 12. Besides a long-time actor, Mr. Le Mat is a Vietnam veteran, and a former championship amateur boxer. He answered a few other questions as well:

FW: Why did you decide to come to Supercruise USA?

PL: Jack Thomas, my friend, is a supporter of the Bread of Life Mission for the homeless. And he asked me would I be willing to come to Florida to do a charity event for the mission. And I agreed. He's a long-time friend and I too want to help the homeless. So we're going to sell autograph pictures at the car show and hopefully make some money for the people at the mission.

FW: When you were growing up, were you a car buff?
